Music Library WORLD

Naxos Music Library World is the most comprehensive online World Music library available and enables you to stream music from more than 160 countries and 1,500 cultural groups. It is the perfect service for anyone with an interest in popular ethnic music.

Naxos Music Library World contains more than 9,360 albums from such renowned labels as Smithsonian Folkways, ARC, Celestial Harmonies, Naxos World, plus dozens of other independent labels. New labels and albums are continuously being added, so there is always something new to discover in Naxos Music Library World.

Subscribers can search Naxos Music Library World by country, geographic area, cultural group and several other criteria. Every track and playlist has a static URL, so sharing Naxos Music Library World content among users is easy.

Naxos Music Library World is one of a suite of online Naxos libraries including Naxos Music Library, Naxos Music Library Jazz, Naxos Video Library, Naxos Spoken Word Library and Naxos Works Database. All Naxos online libraries are backed by our own dedicated team of musicologists, programmers, and designers.

Why subscribe to Naxos Music Library World?

Value for money

Naxos Music Library World stands for a combination of first-class performances and recorded sound from dozens of the finest world music labels at a very affordable price.

Online content saves time, money and space

With Naxos Music Library World, there is no need to ever replace lost or damaged CDs, purchase multiple copies or worry about shelf space. You get great content accessible by multiple users without the headaches or administrative work.

On-site and remote access

Students, teaching staff, music professionals and other users can log in and listen in the library, lecture room, dormitory, office or at home.

Flexible fee structure

Subscription costs are based on the number of simultaneous users, with a minimum of only five users for universities, music colleges and public libraries, and three for schools. Registered users can be both individuals and workstations, on and off campus / site.

Vast range of content

Naxos Music Library World offers a huge range of music around which teaching staff can plan their courses and lessons. The library includes recordings from major collections such as Smithsonian Folkways, as well as unique content from ARC, Celestial Harmonies, Naxos World and many others. New labels are added continuously.

Multiple, simultaneous access

Multiple users can listen simultaneously to the same content or different contents at the same time. Naxos Music Library World is available around the clock for unlimited access.

Simple set up

Set up is simple and easy. For educational institutions, Naxos will create a dedicated URL and flexible access control with a combination of IP address check and referring URL. Separate user names and passwords will also be available for professors / teaching staff and library administrators.

Customer support

Naxos' international presence means that any assistance you may need in setting Naxos Music Library World up is never far away.
