

How LUHS Library Repository works?

- If you want to use the repository unlimitedly you should sign in to the system (on the upper right of the page press Login > LUHS users > enter user data).
- User data are the same as in all LUHS information systems (FirstClass, LSMUSIS, LSMU e-mail and other).
- Full text documents which are accessible only in the intranet can be seen only by logged-in LUHS users.

How to look for information (document)?

- You can search in the collections of the repository communities (Books, Articles, Conference documents and so on).
- You can enter keywords in Search repository box.
- You can also use the functions on the right side of the page: Browse, My Account and to narrow your search you can choose filters in the Discover tab (Authors, Subjects, Issue date, Has file(s)).
