

Bachelor studies

Behavioral Medicine – obligatory course for Health psychology studies

Behavioral Medicine – elective course for Medicine, Nursing, Rehabilitation, Odontology and Public Health study programmes (plan ahead)

Behavioral Medicine – elective course for residency (plan ahead)

Master studies

Behavioral medicine and psychotherapy (programme prepared)

Introductory course of psychotherapy(Cognitive behavioral therapy) – professional qualification studies

Doctoral studies

Rehabilitation of patients with cardiovascular diseases

Non-invasive cardiovascular testing methods

Quality of life, sleep disorders and other diseases

Residency studies

Psychiatry

Post-diploma courses

Stroke prevention and control program

Cardiovascular pathology and sleep: disorders, diagnosis and treatment

Evaluation of cardiovascular status by complex of functional testing methods

Rehabilitation of patients with cardiovascular diseases

Psychosomatics

Insomnia diagnosis and treatment

Psychiatry for non-psychiatrists

Complex treatment of depression using cognitive-behavioral therapy

Complex treatment of anxiety using cognitive-behavioral therapy

Team work and case management in outpatient mental health care system