

Description of the study programme Clinical Nursing

Faculty delivering the programme	Nursing faculty
Programme data national code field of studies branch of studies duration in years scope of the programme mode of study	621B70002 Biomedical Sciences Nursing 2 years / 3 years 120 ECST Full-time/Part-time
Qualification degree/professional qualification to be awarded	Nursing Master, professional qualification is General Practice nurse
Cycle	Second
Requirements for admission	Academical bachelor degree
Other details of the programme	Master study program Clinical Nursing is designed to prepare nursing masters with professional qualification of general practice nurse; it provides the theoretical knowledge for assessment of nursing quality, planning research and facilitates research to verify the results in practice. Knowledge about progress and practice of nursing theory, nursing systems, scientific research, quality management of in a health care facility, methodology of nursing quality, nursing clinical standards and nursing leadership and liberation are provided in thin study program.
Access to professional career	A graduate can work as general practice nurse in health care facilities, public and private health care facilities and institutions of all levels: hospitals, outpatient clinics, children institutions for treatment and education, institutions providing wellness services, nursing homes, and so on., at home of the patient. Also in educational institutions.

Students' mobility	ERASMUS programmes, multi-professional nets
Access to further study	Doctoral studies
Assessment of study results	Diagnostic, formative and summative assessments of students achievements are applied
Chair and members of the Study Programme Committee	Chairman: doc. Aurelija Blaževičienė Members: Prof. Skirmantė Sauliūnė Prof. Lina Jaruševičienė Doc. Olga Riklikienė Asist. Jovita Demskytė Ingrida Žemaitytė (student) Birutė Bartkevičiūtė (student) Gražvydė Masiliūnienė (social partner)