

Description of the study programme Advance Nursing Practice

*Full – time Study Programme “Advance Nursing Practice”, Plan for Academic Year 2015/2016
Study subjects and credits*

Faculty delivering the programme	Nursing faculty
Programme data national code field of studies branch of studies duration in years scope of the programme mode of study	61211B1 Biomedical Sciences Nursing 2 years 120 ECTS Full - time
Qualification degree/professional qualification to be awarded	Master degree of nursing and professional qualification of advance nursing practice
Cycle	Second
Requirement for admission	Nursing bachelor degree
Other details of the programme	The aim of the study program (s)- is to prepare a competent advanced practice nurse with acquired modern knowledge, practical skills and considerable critical thinking who would rely on the system of professional and personal values formed and is able to apply advanced nursing practice solutions based on scientific research, to work independently in various health care institutions and to take leadership in a dynamic multi-professional environment in order to effectively deal with the problems of health care system.
Access to professional career	Advanced nursing practice nurse will can provide health care for the person at home, in- and out- patient health care institutions, nursing in hospitals, palliative care centers, ambulance stations.
Student’s mobility	Multi – professional nets
Access to further study	Doctoral studies

Assessment of study results	Cumulative grading is applied. The final grade is the sum of the cumulative part (50%) and the final test grade (50%).
Chair and members of the Study Programme Committee	Cairman: Doc. Aurelija Blaževičienė Members: Prof. Andrius Macas Doc. Ida Liseckienė Dr. Lina Sprigienė MD Nedas Jasinskas Doc. Jamesetta Newland, NY university Marija Jasinskaitė (student) Daiva Špiliauskienė (social partner)